Liberty Park Homeowners Bulletin

VOLUME 49

FEBRUARY 2016

NO. 2

President's Message

Join us for the next LPHOA meeting on Thursday, February 4th at 7:00 p.m. at the Community Building located at 4100 N. Washington Street. The North Westmont Fire Protection District will have a representative there to give us an update on the dissolution of the district. If you can't make the meeting but you have question, please use the contact form on our website at www.LibertyParkCommunity.org and send us your question and we will ask it for you.

Where has the time gone? It's hard to believe a year has already passed since I started my term as President. One of my goals that I had was for Liberty Park Homeowners Association to host more community events. Since taking office, LPHOA has hosted 2 events in 2015 which were the Pumpkin Painting and Santa's Workshop. Both events were very successful, the kids had a great time and it was wonderful to meet residents in the community that I had never met before. The pictures from these events have been posted on our photos page of our website so check them out if you get a chance. With the success of the 2015 events, there has been discussion of events for 2016. Several ideas have been tossed around such as a movie night, a community picnic in the park and an ice cream social so keep an eye out in the newsletter, our website or Facebook page as planning gets under way. If you have an idea for a community event or would like to volunteer for an event, please visit our website and fill out the contact or volunteer form.

Beware

Homeowners are reminded to beware of an IRS phone scam during tax time. The caller says you have to pay immediately or face arrest. Contact the IRS or local authorities if they call you.

5 Simple Steps To Start Preparing For Tax Season

- 1. Securely save each and every tax form that arrives in your mailbox. Designate a specific place to put all of those W-2s, 1099s and statements as they arrive including the forms, a single manila envelope works great.
- 2. Figure out how you're going to prepare your taxes. Are you going to use software and do it yourself, do it manually or use a preparer? If you choose to do it yourself, it's time to start gathering materials.
- 3. Contribute to your Roth or Traditional IRA. Contributions count for the previous year up until April 15 of the following year. You can make those contributions as long as you do it before you file.
- 4. Think (and talk) about changes in your filing status. Did your marital status change this past year, have a child or did one of your children set out on their own this year? These things will all affect your taxes.
- 5. Be ready for an extension if necessary. It's very easy to receive a six month extension on your filing, just fill out Form 4868 and submit it. You have to make a payment equal to your estimate of what you will owe, but this allows you to not incur any penalties while you're tracking down final details.

Happy Valentine's Day

What does "love" mean to us?
How do we express it each day?

Parental love is powerful – supportive, protective, ongoing.
We love through wins and losses
as we watch our offspring growing.
Grandparent love is special, we didn't know we could love that much.

It's a mutual, endearing bond which starts with our first touch.
We love our friends and associates
who are there for us each day – people we can rely on when things are not going our way.

We may love our job or career,
it's what we do but not who we are.
Express love every way you can
to everyone you know or meet.
Love is the most powerful tool we have
and it makes our lives complete.
